Dear Church Family

Over the last weeks we have seen and heard the most tragic news following a horrific earthquake that has affected Turkey and areas of Syria including the region of Aleppo following a catastrophic earthquake that registered 7.8 on the Richter Scale. Nearly a week after the tragic event the death toll has risen to 33,000 and is expected to double. That depth and magnitude of loss is almost impossible to imagine and overwhelming to in reality respond to. Many charities are appealing for donations, financial and otherwise.

This last Sunday being the second before Lent as I sit to write my contribution this month our gospel reading Matthew 6:25-34 a passage titled 'Do not worry' I cannot help but contemplate what that means for the people of Turkey and Syria right now.

The Lord's Prayer in Luke 11:1-4 frames this question slightly differently in that it's the disciples that ask the question of Jesus. What comfort can be gleaned from Jesus words when asked by his disciples to teach them to pray.

I believe they watched Jesus closely, saw how he modelled a life which followed a different way of being. Retreating to a quiet place to reset and recenter himself. For Jesus it was in prayer that he brought his frustrations, his challenges, his burdens and the burdens he felt for others to his Heavenly Father. So often when Jesus acted, he responded from a place of compassion, being moved to respond and help those in need.

And I wonder if we need to follow that example.

We live in an age when we can end up suffering with what is now termed 'Compassion fatigue'. So what we mustn't do is allow ourselves to be neutralised to inaction but activated, moved to react and act to support in any way we realistically can.

It may not feel like much at the time but if we all do our bit then we can make an enormous difference to those in need.

Every Blessing

Rev Elveen

Winchester Cathedral

In February I took a walk through the Water Meadows in Winchester along the River Itchen, taking in the lovely view of the river and into Winchester, a great way to enter. During the time of the Roman occupation of Britain, Winchester was a Roman town and to make the area into a walled fortification they altered the River Itchen to make it flow where it is today through gravel beds and peaty soil.

Winchester Cathedral was built over many centuries and became a centre for kings to be crowned until London became more prominent. During the 19th Century it was discovered that the foundation of the Cathedral started to sink and cracks appeared in the walls and some walls started to buckle.

William Walker was a diver who trained at Portsmouth Dockyard in 1887 and qualified as a deep water diver in 1892. In 1906 he started working on the foundation of Winchester Cathedral at a depth of 20 feet wearing the old fashioned diver's suit with the large metal breathing helmet.

235 pits were dug along the southern and eastern side of the cathedral each 6 metres deep and he began to shore up the foundation putting concrete beneath them. He spent 6 hours a day for 6 years working with his bare hands in complete darkness as the sediment suspended in the water made it difficult to see. After his work in each pit the water was pumped out and bricklayers were able to restore the walls.

Diver Bill as he was known saved Winchester Cathedral from collapsing with a total of 900,000 bricks 114,900 concrete blocks and 25,800 bags of cement and this was finished in 1911.

William Walker died not long after in 1918 aged 49 during the Spanish Flu epidemic in Beckenham London

Recently an exhibition about William's feat of saving Winchester Cathedral with his bare hands has been showing at the Cathedral and a small statue of William Walker has been displayed near the shrine of St Swithun and the remains of King Canute.

I finished the day's walk with a pub meal next to the Cathedral which was called William Walker and is a Fullers pub and a similar Diving Helmet that he wore hangs outside as the pub's sign.

Weekly Prayers for March - Remain in me

Monday: My Father is the gardener

I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes so that it will be even more fruitful.

John 15:1-2

Abundant God, dig deeply in our lives to prepare us for acts of service that will produce a good return.

Loving Father, our heavenly gardener, we open ourselves to your spiritual nurture.

Clear away the debris amassed over time – the dead works, the lurking selfishness, the weeds of doubt and disappointment.

Draw us close to the truest of vines, to the blessing of relationship with Christ, that we may yield a fruitful harvest of service and love for a needy world.

Amen

Tuesday: Remain in me

Remain in me, as I also remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me.

John 15:4

Lord, we would grow with you

New shoots reaching out, hands stretched upward, like leaves newly formed
Soaking up your light and warmth Lord, we would grow with you.

Lord, we would grow with you

In sunshine and rain, in darkness and light, in cold days and summer days
From Springtime to Winter Lord, we would grow with you.

Lord, we would grow with you

And bring forth fruit that is pleasing to you, fed by your living water
Giving sustenance to others

Lord, we would grow with you.

Amen

© John Birch

Wednesday: Remain in my love

As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you.

Now remain in my love. If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love.

John 15:9-10

Christ, the true vine, beloved of the Father, we would remain in your love.

Nurture us with your lavish grace to follow your teaching and keep your commands.

Water us with your life-giving Spirit that we may flourish and grow in service to God and his world.

Cultivate within us a heart of compassion reflecting the love of our heavenly Father as we seek to obey his life-giving Word.

Christ, the true vine, beloved of the Father, we would remain in your love.

Amen

Thursday: Complete joy

I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete.

John 15:11

Christ, the true vine, beloved of the Father, we open our lives to your presence.

Work deeply within that your joy may be in us and our joy may be complete.

As we remain in your wondrous love may we be filled with your perfect joy, that no one can take away; by which we can know abundance of life.

Christ, the true vine, beloved of the Father, help us be deeply rooted in you that the Spirit may bear fruit in us; that your joy may be in us and our joy may be complete; for the growth of your Kingdom on earth.

Amen

Friday: The greatest love

Greater love has no one than this:
to lay down one's life for one's friends.

John 15:13

Christ the true vine, beloved of the Father, we marvel at your selfless love; your supreme act of friendship for a helpless people, that we may have eternal life.

Love poured out on that cruel cross, a blood offering so we might go free.
Love poured out, infusing this world with rivers of grace and hope of rebirth.
Love poured out, and into these hearts, who drink from a stream that never runs dry.

© John Birch

Christ the true vine, beloved of the Father, we stand in awe of your supreme act of friendship; we are blessed that you call us your friends. Amen

Saturday: Love one another

You are my friends if you do what I command. This is my command: love each other.

John 15:14, 17

Christ, the true vine, beloved of the Father, as we remain in your love and are filled with your joy, give us the grace to follow your command to love one another.

Jesus offers a new-old commandment, that we should love each other.
With the incredible power and the unfathomable depth of God's love for us we can,
we must, love one another.

And it is in this our love for one another that the world will know whom and what we worship.

Come, children of God, let us love one another. Amen

Clothing Collection

with Rags 2 Riches 4 Schools

Do you have clothes in your wardrobe that you no longer wear, maybe last year's fashions, or that buy that was too good to leave but it's not really you after all?

Please help us fundraise by donating your good quality unwanted, re-useable (clean, dry and wearable) clothes and accessories

(please pair and tie shoes together)

Your donations become affordable clothing in other countries

so please do not send poor quality, dirty or wet items, and no duvets, pillows, curtains, books, CDs or bric-a-brac.

STOP and THINK - is it something you'd wear out and about yourself or pass to a friend? If not, no-one else will want to buy and wear it either, so unfortunately it's not reusable and can't go in the bag.

Even if it's only one t-shirt please bring it in, as it will all help our church.

If you can involve family, friends and neighbours please do.

We truly appreciate your support in helping raise additional funds for our church.

There's no better feeling than knowing you raised funds, helped the economy, the environment, and somebody on the other side of the world – and all by donating some clothes.

If we can fill 100 bags we'll have half a tonne!

Please bring your donations to St Margaret's Centre:

On the 5th March 2023

Once again, very many thanks for your contribution towards Operation Christmas Child. I have received several emails of thanks and would like to pass on the following:-

Most children in the remote Himibia village in Namibia had never played with toys. But Kangeloo desperately wanted a doll. Imagination had become her companion as she carried around a large stone and pretended it was her friend. Kangeloo sat quietly in her seat and hugged the shoebox close to her chest. When it was time to look inside she slowly opened the lid and stared at the gifts. As the other boys and girls squealed with delight and showed one another their new treasures Kangeloo continued to sit and stare unable to believe her eyes when she realised that the doll in the shoebox was now hers.

In another email recently received I was informed that 250,000 shoeboxes were sent from the UK. Highworth Collection Centre collected 1,771 shoeboxes. These were packed in 190 cartons and sent to Westbury for onwards processing.

Jokes

You can't be too careful.

Two men were climbing a particularly difficult mountain when one of them suddenly fell down a crevasse 500 feet deep. "Are you alright, Bert?" called the man at the top of the crevasse. "I'm still alive thank goodness, Fred" came the reply. "Here grab this rope", said Fred, throwing a rope down to Bert. "I can't grab it", shouted Bert. "My arms are broken". "Well, fit it around your legs." "I can't do that either" apologised Bert. "My legs are broken". "Put the rope in your mouth", shouted Fred. So Bert put the rope in his mouth and Fred began to haul him to safety. 490 ft 400ft.... 300..... 200..... 100.... 50 feet and then Fred called: "Are you all right Bert? Yeh-h-hhh.

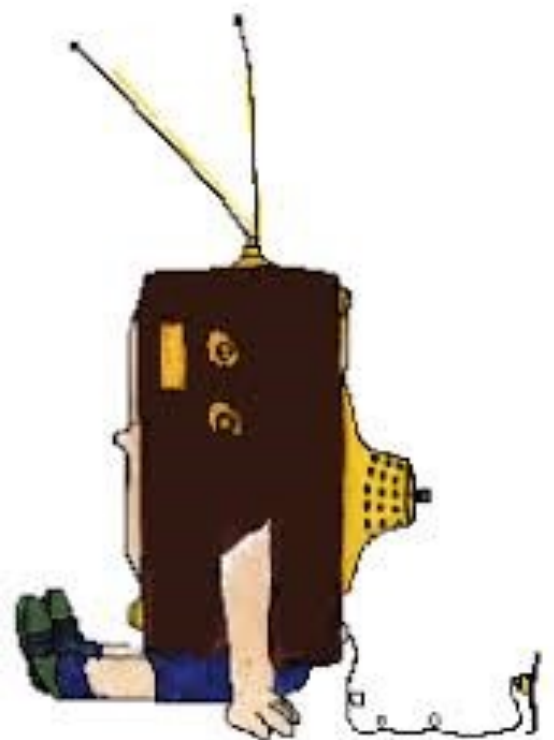

Today I saw a little worm
Wriggling on his belly
Perhaps he'd like to come inside
And see what's on the telly Spike Milligan
Do we watch too much TV?
I'll tell you the story of Jimmy Jet
And you know what I tell you is true
He loved to watch his T.V.Set
Almost as much as you

He watched all day he watched all night
Till he grew pale and lean from the early show to the late late show
And all the shows between

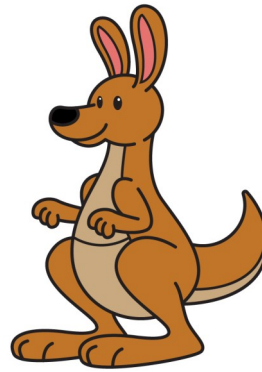

He watched till his eyes were frozen wide
And his bottom grew in his chair
And his chin turned into a tuning dial
And aerials grew out of his hair

And his brain turned into T.V.tubes
And his face to a T.V. Screen
And two knobs saying video and sound
Grew where his ears had been

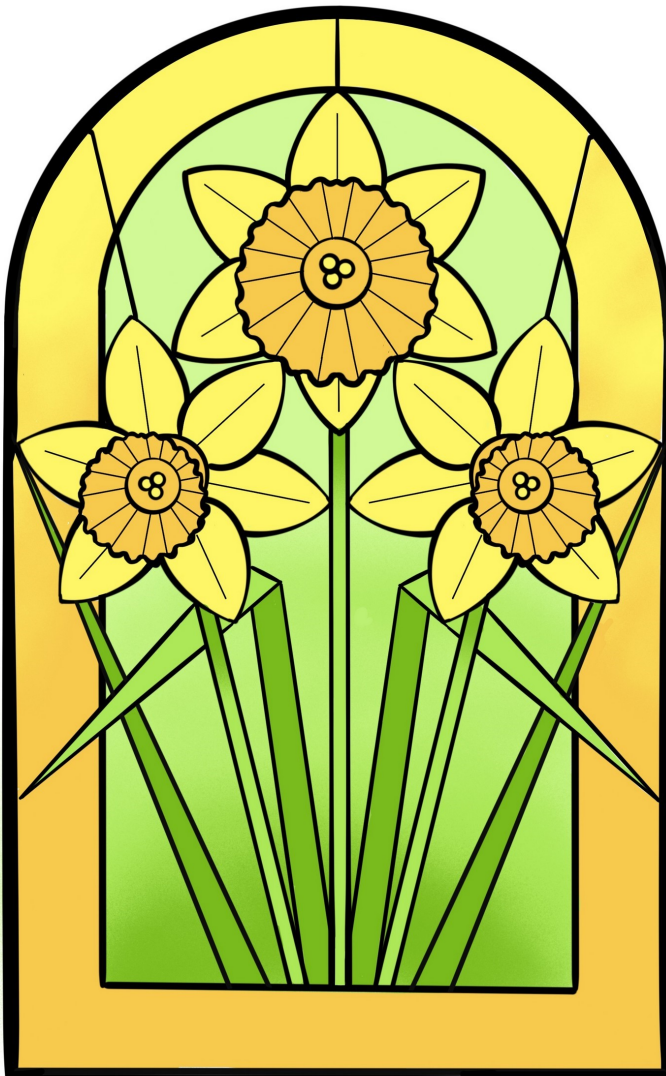

And he grew a plug that looked like a tail
So we plugged in little Jim
And now instead of him watching T.V.
We all sit around and watch him
Be warned

GIVING

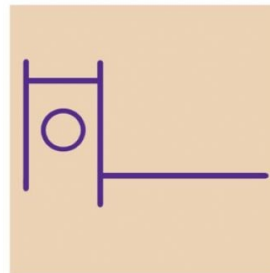

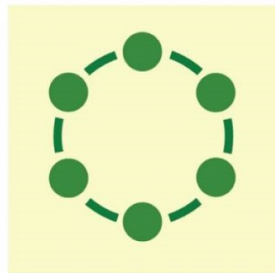

You may be aware that many charities and organisations are struggling at this time, this includes churches.

Great News! You can now sign up to join the Parish Giving Scheme (PGS) online. There is a link for this on the Giving page of our website:

<https://www.strattonteamministry.co.uk/giving/>

If you haven't considered the PGS before, we would ask you to prayerfully consider doing so. It's very easy to sign up and it works in a similar way to a Direct Debit (that it is intended to replace), in that a regular payment authorised by you goes out either weekly, monthly or yearly straight to the church. It is perfectly safe and can be stopped or changed at any time.

PGS is a great way to give to the work and mission of St Margaret's Church. Donations given through PGS come straight to the Church, there are no admin fees or bank charges for us to pay. 41 people have now signed up to do this - Thank you
