Stratton Methodist Church, 829335
St Mary's R C Church, The Presbytery, Swindon 535089

Dear Church Family

As Jesus went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. Mark 6:34

In our Sunday services, we have been focusing on Jesus the bread of life. The passage above goes on to be the feeding of the 5000, but before Jesus physically feeds them, he 'teaches them many things. Jesus' ministry had a holistic approach; one that focused healing, teaching and feeding. One that focused on body, mind and soul. In society today we focus on our physical ailments by visiting the doctor and our mental ailments by visiting a psychologist. But how are we looking after our souls? Do we invest our time in nourishment that challenges and changes us, or do we leave it to chance?

In recent weeks we have watched the Olympics and Para-Olympics from Paris. Sitting on the edge of our seats as our UK athletes compete against the best sports people in the world. When you are high profile in whatever your chosen field is (sports, politics, acting, musicians, etc) there are immense highs which are often followed by massive lows or crashes. Looking after their bodies and eating the right things are part of their daily routine, because they know if they don't their performance won't be the best it could be.

What has really interested me over this Olympics is the number of British athletes who have spoken about the importance of looking after and feeding their souls.

If we look back to when the Olympics were last in Paris in 1924, you might remember Eric Liddell whose story, along with that of Roger Bannister, was made famous in the film Chariots of Fire. Liddell had a strong faith and refused to race on Sundays, because that was the day set aside for God. He changed his distance from 100m to 400m, because the heats for the 400m were on a weekday and went on to win Gold.

In 2020, swimmer Daniel Jervis in his pool side interview after he swam in the final of the 1500 freestyle said this off the cuff, “I am proud of a lot of things in my life but the thing I am most proud is that I am Christian, and obviously God was with me tonight. I am just grateful to be representing him.” In a more recent interview for Songs of Praise he spoke quite openly about the most important part of his life is his faith. How it is there in the good times and the bad times and how he notices God alongside him in the challenges he has faced.

Ahead of this year’s Olympics Andy Peaty spoke openly to the BBC about his recent struggles with mental health. To deal with the price and the pressures of the intense 24 / 7 / 365 routine of being an athlete he says his Christian faith has helped him get through and appreciate life. He describes finding this centredness as “the only place I found it was at church, the peace is every Sunday in my week and that gives me a noticeable balance.”

As a church and as individuals we continue to have great compassion for people who struggle with their mental wellbeing. Clearly these athletes have found something that sustains them and feeds them which should be a role model to others. If we want our young people to find nourishment for their souls that is not left to chance, we need to model for them a much healthier way in which we make time to attend to our souls. Not an add on or if we can fit it in, but just like make time to eat or fit in some exercise, so we should make time to attend to our souls. Looking to the example of the Good Shepherd who has come to guide his sheep.

Blessings

Elveen

Your church needs your help!

There will be a cake stall at the fete on Saturday 14 September 2024 to raise funds for our Church, but we cannot do this without your help.

If you are able, please could we ask you to make a cake (or cakes!) to help fill the stall and give us plenty to sell on the day.

Your help would be very much appreciated.

- 16 Days of Activism against Gender Based Violence

Midday Prayers 2024: Transformation – Now! August - MU at Prayer

Monday – Bless the work of Mothers' Union

'The same Lord is Lord of all and richly blesses all who call on him.'

Romans 10:12

The Lord bless us and keep us

We pray God's blessing for ourselves;
may we be sustained in all we do.
We pray God's blessing on those whom we love;
may they be upheld by the presence of Christ.

The Lord make his face to shine upon us and be gracious to us

We pray God's light to shine clarity
on our plans for loving kindness.
We pray God's grace to encircle
all who serve and those they support.

The Lord turn his face towards us and give us peace

We pray God's divine favour and peace that surpasses all understanding to fill our lives today.

Amen

Tuesday – The words we speak

‘Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms
with every spiritual blessing in Christ.’

Ephesians 1:3

Eternal God, the refuge and help

of all your children,
we praise you for all you have given us,
for all you have done for us,
for all that you are to us.

In our weakness, you are strength,
in our darkness, you are light,
in our sorrow, you are comfort and peace.
We cannot number your blessings,
we cannot declare your love:
For all your blessings we bless you.

May we live as in your presence,
and love the things that you love,
and serve you in our daily lives;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

St. Boniface, 675-754

Wednesday – The prayers we breathe

‘See, I am doing a new thing!
Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?’
Isaiah 43:19

Loving Lord, transform our lives
that we may reflect the glory of Christ
and share his love in the world.

You are the potter, Lord,
and in your skilful hands
even the unlikeliest of clay becomes a thing of beauty and useful, bringing glory
not to the pot, but its creator.

So take these lives, this clay,
and in your loving hands
transform and make us
into what we long to be;
made useful, Lord, for you.

Transform our struggles
into victories.

Transform our doubting into certainty.

Transform our stumbles
into confidence.

Transform our sorrow
into worshipping,
gracious God, we pray.

Amen

© John Birch

Thursday – The witness of our lives

‘We are being transformed into his likeness
with ever-increasing glory,
which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.’

2 Corinthians 3:18

Breathe in me O Holy Spirit
that my thoughts may all be holy;

Act in me O Holy Spirit
that my works, too, may be holy;

Draw my heart O Holy Spirit that I love but what is holy;

Strengthen me O Holy Spirit
to defend all that is holy;

Guard me then O Holy Spirit that I always may be holy.
St. Augustine of Hippo

Loving Lord, transform our lives
that we may reflect the glory of Christ.
Continue in us the work of your Spirit;
the miracle of transformation
from the gloom of sin
to the glory of Christ
Amen

Friday – Faith in Action

‘My people will live in peaceful dwelling places, in secure homes, in undisturbed places of rest.’ Isaiah 32:18

God of compassion, your eyes are turned to the poor and needy.
Turn our gaze to see the need around us.
Give us a vision of an equal society where everyone has a place.

God of justice, your face is set against poverty.
Shake us out of our comfort.
Challenge us to counter injustice whatever the cost to ourselves.

God of hope, your kingdom will come in its fullness.
Envision us to act and pray.
Inspire us to work for an equal society of fullness of life for all that poverty may be overcome. Amen

Saturday – Blessed to be a Blessing

‘God is able to make every blessing of yours overflow for you, so that in every situation you will always have all you need for any good work. ‘

2 Corinthians 9:8 (ISB)

God bless each step
that we take today,
whether that road
is rough or smooth.

And in God's strength
step out in faith,
step out in love,
step out in peace,
and bless this world
with God's presence
in and through our lives

May we be a blessing
to every life we touch,

and the Spirit within,
that life-giving water,
be a gift of refreshment
in love shown and shared with all who are thirsty
along the road we travel.

Amen

© John Birch

‘A person of blessing will be enriched,
and he who gives water also will be refreshed.’

Proverbs 11:25 (LEB)

To end with some worrying news from the Japanese financial markets following last week's disclosure that Origami bank had folded. We hear that Sumo Bank has gone belly up and Bonsai bank plans to cut back some of its branches. Meanwhile shares in Kamikaze Bank were suspended after they nose-dived, 500 staff at Karate Bank got the chop and Karaoke Bank is up for sale and going for a song. Analysts also report that there is something fishy going on at Sushi Bank where it is feared that staff may get a raw deal. But Samurai Bank is soldiering on after sharp cutbacks.

GIVING

You may be aware that many charities and organisations are struggling at this time, this includes churches.

Great News! You can now sign up to join the Parish Giving Scheme (PGS) online. There is a link for this on the Giving page of our website:

<https://www.strattonteamministry.co.uk/giving/>

If you haven't considered the PGS before, we would ask you to prayerfully consider doing so. It's very easy to sign up and it works in a similar way to a Direct Debit (that it is intended to replace), in that a regular payment authorised by you goes out either weekly, monthly or yearly straight to the church. It is perfectly safe and can be stopped or changed at any time.

PGS is a great way to give to the work and mission of St Margaret's Church. Donations given through PGS come straight to the Church, there are no admin fees or bank charges for us to pay. 41 people have now signed up to do this - Thank you
